Westville Police Service have been receiving multiple calls on reports of bear sightings through the town. If you see a bear on your property or suspect one has been around, please contact the Westville Police Service by phoning our dispatch line at 902-396-4911. The Government of Nova Scotia also has information on bears that can be located at <https://novascotia.ca/natr/wildlife/nuisance/bears.asp> and at <https://novascotia.ca/natr/wildlife/living-with-wildlife/bear/>.

Westville Police Services have responded to several calls in the month of June regarding back yard fires. Before you burn each day at 2pm the Nova Scotia Fire Index is updated whether burning in your area of the province is allowed. The link for the fire index can be located at <https://novascotia.ca/BurnSafe/>.

Westville Police Service has been receiving multiple calls for cars speeding throughout the town at different locations. Westville Police Service is working hard to find the individuals responsible for these complaints. We ask if anyone has any information pertaining to cars speeding in residential areas within the Town of Westville as asked to call our dispatch at 902-396-4911.
