Report of the Police Chief – Report attached

Staff Sargent Wilson read the Chiefs report, including a letter commending Constable Vanderkwaak for his assistance on a call.

After the report discussion took place including that for the protests there were approximately 60 vehicles and over 100 people in attendance. The Crowd dispersed on their own and were peaceful. The Family Law act still seems high but much of it is documentation and very little police involvement. It is important to report every phone scam to create awareness.

PC-2022.03.15.135 Moved by Commissioner Joudrey, seconded by Commissioner MacGregor to approve the report of the Chief of Police as presented.

Motion Unanimously Carried
