

Free Public Transit Trial in Westville

Westville Town Council and Chad Transit are pleased to announce the launch of a free one-month long, weekly, public transit service trial between Westville to the Aberdeen Business Centre in New Glasgow.

What:

Over the month-long trial period Chad Transit will be picking up riders in Westville and taking them, free of charge, to the Aberdeen Business Centre in New Glasgow and returning them to Westville later that same day.

Where:

Rider pick-up will happen in front of the Post Office (1870 Main Street North) in Westville at 9:30am on Fridays with riders being delivered to the Aberdeen Business Centre in time to catch the 10:00am beginning of the Pictou County Transit 1 hour loop.

Riders will be picked-up at 2:00pm at the Aberdeen Business Centre and returned to the Westville Post Office.

When:

The public transit trial will run Fridays during the month of September, beginning on September 3rd and continuing through September 30th. Pick-up will occur in Westville at 9:30am and pick-up at Aberdeen Business Centre will occur at 2:00pm.

How Much:

During the trial period there will be no charge to ride (either way) between Westville and the Aberdeen Business Centre in New Glasgow. Westville Riders can continue the regular Pictou County Transit once they arrive at Aberdeen Business Centre by simply paying the standard PCT fare of $3.00 per stop or $7.50 for a day pass. The regular service makes stops at Aberdeen Business Centre, Pine St across from the Aberdeen Hospital, Highland Square Mall, NSCC, Pictou County Wellness Centre, New Glasgow Library and more.
